

Online 1,3 Butadiene Awareness for General Industry

Intended Audience

The 1,3 Butadiene Awareness for General Industry course is ideal for all those who may come into contact or require knowledge about 1,3 Butadiene. Individuals who may specifically benefit from this course include the following:

- General industry workers

If you have any concerns as to whether this course is appropriate for you or your industry, please contact us.

Learning Objectives

The 1,3 Butadiene Awareness for General Industry course is an introductory-level training that shares the dangers of the hazardous chemical substance, 1,3 Butadiene. Participants can expect to learn essential information established by OSHA Standard Subpart Z 29 CFR 1910.1045 for General Industry. Additionally, this course discusses how one might encounter this chemical, as well as hazard recognition and avoidance techniques.

This online course teaches participants essential knowledge surrounding the toxic chemical, 1,3 Butadiene including identification, health effects, avoidance, and more.

Course Topics

- Introduction to 1,3 Butadiene
- Hazards and effects of exposure
- OSHA standards
- Exposure controls
- Review of 1,3 Butadiene exposure

Elk Environmental Services is partnered with ClickSafety to offer our clients quality online training.

