

Online Cotton Dust Awareness for General Industry

Intended Audience

The Cotton Dust Awareness for General Industry training is ideal for all those in the General Industry Sector of all employment levels. This course will specifically benefit the following:

- General industry workers
- General industry managers
- General industry supervisors

If you have any concerns as to whether this course is appropriate for you or your industry, please contact us.

Learning Objectives

The Cotton Dust Awareness for General Industry offers introductory-level training regarding the dangers of Cotton Dust and how they may often be overlooked as the potential source of a problem. This course shows participants how to deal with Cotton Dust and focuses on the OSHA standard surrounding it as covered by Subpart Z 29 CFR 1910.1043.

This online training is designed to aid participants in risk mitigation surrounding Cotton Dust and how to avoid the potential of brown lung disease. Participants will learn the many ways Cotton Dust can prove harmful and essential safety methods for all personnel.

Course Topics

- Properties of Cotton Dust
- Exposure to Cotton Dust
- Health hazards associated with Cotton Dust
- Safety requirements for Cotton Dust

Elk Environmental Services is partnered with ClickSafety to offer our clients quality online training.

