

Online Office Safety for Construction

Intended Audience

This Office Safety online course is designed for construction workers and management to ensure the safety of their job site according to OSHA regulations.

- Construction Foremen
- Construction Supervisors
- Construction Workers

Learning Objectives

The main focus of this Office Safety course is to acquaint you with the basics of office safety and how to prevent office hazards. When finished, you will have been made aware of OSHA office safety procedures and understand how to implement them in the workplace.

Course Topics

- Introduction to Office Safety
- Hazard Control
- Safe Lifting and Carrying Practices
- Other Exposures

Elk Environmental Services is partnered with Clicksafety to offer our clients quality online training.

