

Online Industrial Hygiene Awareness for General Industry

Intended Audience

The Industrial Hygiene Awareness for General Industry course is designed for all those within the general industry sector. Individuals who may specifically benefit from this course include the following:

- General industry workers
- General industry managers
- General industry supervisors

If you have any concerns as to whether this course is appropriate for you or your industry, please contact us.

Learning Objectives

The Industrial Hygiene Awareness for General Industry training is an introductory-level safety course designed to teach participants the need for and work of an industrial hygienist. Participants can expect to cover good hygiene practices and how they can keep one safe onsite.

This online course is designed to educate participants about the importance of overall industrial hygiene. Participants can expect to learn control methods, chemical, biological, physical, and ergonomic issues, OSHA requirements, and more.

Course Topics

- Introduction to industrial hygiene
- Background of industrial hygiene
- History of industrial hygiene

- Nature of industrial hygiene work
- Safety drills 1 & 2
- Job hazards and controls

Elk Environmental Services is partnered with ClickSafety to offer our clients quality online training.

