

Online Competent Person, Fall Protection for Construction

Intended Audience

This Competent Person, Fall Protection safety course will teach construction supervisors, managers, owners and safety officers the OSHA and State requirements for designating a competent person to oversee the safety requirements of fall protection.

- Construction Supervisors
- Construction Managers
- Construction Owners
- Safety Officers

Learning Objectives

This online safety course will help you select a competent person who has a solid background in all the various fall protection requirements, as well as reveal the OSHA and State requirements needed to find the correct person to act as a competent person.

Course Topics

- Introduction to Competent Person, Fall Protection
- Naming a Competent Person (CP)
- Competent Person Responsibilities
- California and Other States

Elk Environmental Services is partnered with Clicksafety to offer our clients quality online training.

