

Online Excavation Safety for Construction

Intended Audience

This online course is intended for construction workers and supervisors who need to implement construction excavation safety for excavation and trenching activities:

- Construction Workers
- Construction Supervisors
- Construction Foremen

Learning Objectives

This Excavation Safety for Construction online training course will teach you the hazards that are commonly found when working around a trench or an excavation. We will also discuss OSHA safety requirements and standards. Additionally, the course covers soil classification, air monitoring, safe access, spoils piles, shoring and sloping.

Course Topics

- Introduction to Excavation Safety
- Myths of Excavation
- General Excavation Safety Techniques
- Situational Analysis
- Soils and Soil Classification
- Classifying Soil
- Protective Systems
- Situational Analysis
- Additional Protective Systems
- Other Systems
- Other Considerations

- Regular Requirements

Elk Environmental Services is partnered with Clicksafety to offer our clients quality online training.

