

Mold Awareness for Facility Operators for Supervisors and Managers for Construction

Intended Audience

This Mold Awareness for Facility Operators safety course will benefit all workers and management employees at a construction work site.

- Facility Operators
- Facility Managers

Learning Objectives

While completing this online course, you will be given terms and definitions of mold and its characteristics. You will become familiar with preventive measures and actions you should take when mold becomes an issue. You will be instructed on remediation and how to deal with tenants and building occupants. You will learn to handle documentation and awareness, as well as resources for additional information.

Course Topics

- Introduction to Mold Awareness for Facility Operators
- Mold Characteristics
- Preventive Measures With Water Intrusion
- Action to Take If You Find Mold
- Mold Remediation
- EPA's Top Ten

Elk Environmental Services is partnered with Clicksafety to offer our clients quality online training.

