

Online Slips, Trips, and Falls for General Industry

Intended Audience

The Slips, Trips, and Falls for General Industry online training is designed for those within the general industry sector – including employees, managers, and supervisors – all of whom are held responsible for the safety of the workplace or jobsite in accordance with OSHA regulations. This course is specifically beneficial for the following industries:

- Manufacturing
- Warehousing & distribution
- Property management

If you have any concerns as to whether this course is appropriate for you or your industry, please contact us.

Learning Objectives

The Slips, Trips, and Falls for General Industry online training is designed to train participants to recognize why, according to OSHA, slips, trips, and falls contribute the leading cause of injury and accidents in the general industry sector. This intermediate-level online safety course focuses on injury prevention by teaching participants the common risk exposures that may lead to workplace accidents. Additionally, participants can expect to learn steps for planning, communicating, and educating for successfully creating a safe work environment, which is the key to preventing workplace accidents.

NOTICE: This course includes OSHA 2017 Subpart D Walking and Working Surfaces Final Rule Implementation.

This online course teaches participants the dangers associated with slips, trips, and falls, as well as how to avoid such dangers.

Course Topics

- Introduction to slips, trips, and falls
- Causes and factors
- Prevention basics
- Ladder safety
- Fall protection equipment
- Tips for supervisors and managers
- Important training requirements

Elk Environmental Services is partnered with ClickSafety to offer our clients quality online training.

