

Online Fall Protection Awareness for Construction

Intended Audience

This Fall Protection Awareness online course benefits all workers and management employees at a construction work site.

- Construction Workers
- Construction Foremen
- Construction Supervisors

Learning Objectives

While completing this Fall Protection Awareness online course, you will be informed of the OSHA's rules and regulations. These rules and regulations regard common fall hazards and the need for protection. In addition, this course discusses the types of fall protection available and how to choose a fall protection system.

Course Topics

- About Fall Protection
- Fall Protection Systems
- Fall Hazards
- Fall Protection Situational Analysis

Elk Environmental Services is partnered with Clicksafety to offer our clients quality online training.

