

Online Wildfire Smoke Safety Awareness for All Industries

Intended Audience

The Wildfire Smoke Safety Awareness for All Industries training is ideal for all those who may be exposed to the dangers associated with wildfire smoke.

If you have any concerns as to whether this course is appropriate for you or your industry, please contact us.

Learning Objectives

The Wildfire Smoke Safety Awareness for All Industries training is designed to familiarize students with basic occupational safety and health principles and techniques as they relate to wildfire smoke awareness principally in outdoor places of employment. Participants can expect to learn best management practices, new regulatory requirements, and sources to the latest occupational safety and guidance.

This course is designed to provide essential knowledge surrounding wildfires and wildfire smoke, including characteristics, health effects, and smoke impact control strategies.

Course Topics

- Wildfire characteristics
- Health effects and controls
- Particulate matter and the air quality index (AQI)

Elk Environmental Services is partnered with ClickSafety to offer our clients quality online training.

