

Online Dust Disturbance and Mitigation for Construction

Intended Audience

The dust safety course is intended for all construction workers.

- Construction Workers
- Construction Managers
- Construction Supervisors

Learning Objectives

This online safety course enhances your understanding of dust generation and control. Specifically, this training addresses the major impact that dust disturbance and mitigation have on construction and construction-related projects in terms of regulatory compliance, safety and health. By the end of this dust safety course, you will have been provided with the knowledge required to work safely at the job site.

Course Topics

- Introduction to Dust Disturbance & Mitigation
- Dust
- Dust and Health
- Brownfields
- Dust Control
- Dust Monitoring

Elk Environmental Services is partnered with Clicksafety to offer our clients quality online training.

