

Online Mold in Construction

Intended Audience

This Mold in Construction online course is for all workers and management employees at a construction work site.

- Construction Workers
- Construction Foremen
- Construction Supervisors

Learning Objectives

This online safety course focuses on what mold is and how to recognize it. You will be informed of different mold types and of the human health effects from mold exposure. In addition, you will be taught to identify techniques to control mold and top ten facts of mold.

Course Topics

- Overview of Mold in Construction
- Mold – An Introduction
- Molds and Human Health
- Mold Control
- Moisture Control
- Information Sources
- EPA's Top Ten

Elk Environmental Services is partnered with Clicksafety to offer our clients quality online training.

