

Online Focus Four Caught Between Fatality Prevention for Construction

Intended Audience

This intermediate-level online course is appropriate for all workers and managers, superintendents, foremen, and crew leaders who may be exposed to caught-in or -between hazards on construction sites. Employees who are responsible for workplace safety will also benefit from taking this course. Additional OSHA Focus Four courses include:

- OSHA Focus Four Hazard Awareness for Construction
- Focus Four Struck-By Fatality Prevention for Construction
- Focus Four Falls Fatality Prevention for Construction
- Focus Four Electrocution Prevention for Construction

To determine if Focus Four Caught Between Fatality Prevention for Construction is appropriate for your fatality prevention construction training needs, please contact us.

Learning Objectives

Focus Four Caught Between Fatality Prevention for Construction helps employees understand the dangers of caught-in/-between hazards and how to minimize them in the workplace. Course topics include:

- The OSHA Focus Four
- Common caught-in or -between hazards
- How to avoid and minimize hazards
- Best practices for working safely near caught-in/-between hazards
- How to escape caught-in or -between hazards
- Personal Protective Equipment (PPE)

- Employer responsibilities

After completing the course, students will understand the dangers presented by these caught-in or -between hazards and best practices for preventing injuries and death.

Elk Environmental Services is partnered with Clicksafety to offer our clients quality online training.

