

Online Fall Prevention & Protection Awareness for General Industry

Intended Audience

This Fall Prevention & Protection Awareness for General Industry online course is designed for all General Industry sector employees, including supervisors and managers who are responsible for the safety of their workplace according to OSHA regulations. Any employee who might use be exposed to risks from falls in the workplace should take this course, including those in the following industries:

- Manufacturing
- Warehousing and Distribution
- Property Management
- General Office
- Retail Services
- Hospitality
- Healthcare

Learning Objectives

While completing this Fall Prevention & Protection Awareness online course, you will be informed of the OSHA's rules and regulations. Once you successfully complete the course, you will:

1. Recognize fall hazards in your workplace
2. Identify basic OSHA standards for fall protection
3. Identify ways to prevent a fall
4. Recognize protection systems for potential workplace fall hazards

Course Topics

- Slips, Trips and Falls
- Fall Prevention
- Openings and Holes
- Stairs and Railings
- Workplace Equipment
- Ladder Safety
- Personal Fall Arrest Systems

Elk Environmental Services is partnered with Clicksafety to offer our clients quality online training.

