

Online Mold Remediation and Restoration for Supervisors and Managers for Construction

Intended Audience

This Mold Response online course is designed for construction workers, managers, contractors, building owners and their representatives who have the responsibility to perform mold inspections on their job site according to OSHA regulations.

- Construction Managers
- Construction Supervisors
- Construction Employees
- Building Owners and Their Representatives

Learning Objectives

This advanced Mold Information and Training online safety course will provide mold education in order to help contractors prevent mold claims. This course will also teach the basic guidelines, methods and best management practices for mold moisture recognition. In addition, this course provides the proper evaluation and control techniques for contractors, employees and owners involved in the mold prevention process.

Course Topics

- Introduction to Mold Information and Training
- Pre-Construction and Design
- Construction Phase
- Post Construction Phase

- Managing a Water Event
- Water Damage Guidelines
- Mold Remediation
- Finished Remediation and Cleanup
- Checklist for Mold Remediation
- Mold Prevention Plan

Elk Environmental Services is partnered with Clicksafety to offer our clients quality online training.

