

Online Advanced Asbestos Awareness for Property Management

Intended Audience

This online asbestos safety course is intended to provide detailed asbestos awareness information for Employees, Managers, Supervisors, Safety Directors, Property Managers and Building Owners engaged in housekeeping, janitorial, custodial and related maintenance activities. It should be taken by employees, employers and others that work in the property and building management industry covered by one or both of OSHA's General and/or Construction Industry asbestos standards.

- Employees and employers that work in the property and building management industry
- Building and property owners, managers and related personnel
- Safety Directors, Managers and other professionals that may have the opportunity to work in or otherwise support the property and building management industry
- Other trades and related personnel that may have the opportunity to work in the property and building management industry

Learning Objectives

When taking ClickSafety's Asbestos Awareness for Property Management online safety course, you will learn the following:

Course Topics

- Background of Asbestos Use, Products and Definitions
- Asbestos Basics

- Types of Asbestos
- Asbestos Fibers
- Asbestos Exposure
- Health Effects of Asbestos Exposure
- Asbestos Law and Regulation
- Asbestos Regulation and the building and/or property Owner/Manager
- Asbestos Containing Materials (Types)
- Asbestos Surveys and Inspections
- How to Avoid Exposure

Elk Environmental Services is partnered with Clicksafety to offer our clients quality online training.

