

Online Emergency Action Planning Awareness for Construction

Intended Audience

This Emergency Action Planning online course is designed for construction workers and managers who are responsible for the safety of their job site according to OSHA regulations:

- Construction Workers
- Construction Foremen

Learning Objectives

In this Emergency Action Planning online safety course, you will learn about emergency action planning and the OSHA requirements for on-site emergency response. When finished, you should have the emergency action planning training needed to be ready to respond to emergencies.

Course Topics

- Introduction to Emergency Action Planning
- Alarm Systems
- Emergency Response
- Final Considerations

Elk Environmental Services is partnered with Clicksafety to offer our clients quality online training.

